Isaac Sabethai

Isaac Sabethai has been working as an economist at the Bank of Greece since 1976 and is now serving as director of its Economic Research Department. He is also editor of the Bank's Economic Bulletin and a member of the recently constituted Council of Employment and Social Security Experts (an advisory body linked with the Ministry of Labour). Professionally, he has mainly dealt with issues relating to the labour market, employment, incomes policies and inflation in Greece. Back in 1977, he served on the Greek team which took part in the technical negotiations concerning the "chapter" on free movement of workers and social policy, in preparation for Greek accession to the European Union.
